

INTRODUCTION – LEADERSHIP

Please read as written, Thank you.

KIM HODOUS built a million-dollar business from her kitchen table, despite having ZERO business experience. She is the author of Show Up, Be Bold, Play Big - an Indie Next Generation book of Excellence Finalist. She's appeared on NBC, ABC, CBS and Fox. She's a former Highschool history teacher, a biking fanatic, addicted to Mint Milanos, and, OH YEAH – the mother of FIVE!

For more than 15 years, Kim has been on a mission to help LEADERS all over the world BE HAPPY and most importantly for us here today - WORK HAPPY – because, on average, we will spend more than 30% of our life at work.

Kim's real-life stories and practical strategies, coupled with her high-energy, no-nonsense approach, will inspire you to make positive changes – because bottom line, HAPPY PEOPLE MAKE GOOD THINGS HAPPEN!

Please help me welcome... KIM HODOUS!
